ARREST RUST REAL ESTATE MAN; TAKEN TO MARIPOSA

Charles B. Schaefer, prominent real estate man of Rust was taken into custody yesterday on a warrant from Mariposa. Sheriff W. F. Farnsworth of that place left last night for Mariposa with the prisoner. The warrant it is said is the result of a big land deal in that section.

Deputy Sheriff Silsturi of this county claims that he served the warrant on Schafer Thursday night and that Schaefer went to his home and "forgot" to return to the keeping of Silsturi. This Schaefer denies. Schaefer did not appear perturbed over his arrest and declared that he would have no difficulty in proving his innocence. (Special to the News)

Local merchants are bringing every pressure to bear to prevent a strike.

IN EL DORADO

Mrs. Paul Dunlap, well known west side resident, is visiting with relatives in Eldorado county. She is expected back tomorrow.

GEORGE BEBAN AT RICHMOND TODAY

Few stars of the photo drama have attained to the same distinction as George Beban, whose name immediately conjures up the world of the newborn American, the struggling people who have come here from the old world to take their part in the upbuilding of the land of the free. And all the dreams which they have left of the new world are characterized with unique fervor by this genius. He breathes always the atmosphere of the Ghetto and the ardor of the American immigrant.

At the Richmond today Beban will be seen in "An Alien" which is adapted to film from "The Sign of the Rose." It is a play replete with interest and a masterpiece in every way.

It is part of one of the longest shows ever presented at the local playhouse, there being eleven reels in all at the first show and a program almost as long for the second. "An Alien" is a great film and should be a tremendous drawing feature for today.

BRIEF HEALTH NOTES

Dirt and filth accumulate all the time; and if neglected soon become ugly, unsightly and dangerous. Cleanliness and beauty can only be maintained by constant vigilance and labor.

It is just as important from the standpoint of community health and safety that we should have a fall clean-up as that we should have a thorough cleaning up in the early Spring. Where filth abounds, there flies are found, holds good for both the spring and autumn months. The warm weather we are having is just right for fly breeding purposes. All that is needed are the breeding places. It is well known that in early autumn, flies are more troublesome than at any other time of the year. They are also more dangerous. So if we keep up the good work, we will have fewer flies, less sickness and more health.

What is nastier than a mouth full of decayed teeth veneered with rotting food?

It should be very plain to all that the Health Department is established in every city to help people escape contagious diseases and other dangers to health and life. But "to help" them implies that the people shall themselves do their part. Some of these contagious diseases continue to reappear season after season because many persons, apparently well, carry the active germs and communicate them to others who are susceptible. It is very important, therefore, that all school children should be carefully examined to discover whether they are sources of danger. If a child carries these contagious disease germs, it is dangerous; especially dangerous when it mixes with a school full of children. A thorough examination of the mouths and throats of all children now is a sensible thing to have done because it means the saving of many lives and much sickness the next few months.

For the sake of the health and happiness of each family and the safety of the whole community, each parent should do his or her utmost to help the Health Department stamp out contagious diseases, when they exist. The best way is to have your family doctor come in and examine the throats and mouths of every child in your family before they enter school. Every parent has a duty to his neighbor in this matter but a first duty to his own boy or girl. Your physician can find out whether there are any physicial defects or conditions that are handicapping its growth or development or menacing its life or health. An ounce of prevention is worth many pounds of pills and powders. Your doctor is the key to prevention. It will cost you less to keep your family well than to meet the expense of sickness that is preventable.

When your child comes home from school and complains of a sore throat, keep him home the next day and apply simple home remedies. If in twenty-four hours, the throat is no better, call your family physician. This is "Safety First" advice and is well worth ofllowing.

If you know of any unsanitary condition or have any complaint to make, kindly telephone to the Health Office, Phone Richmond 302, and we will take care of it for you. "That's what we are here for."

Charles R. Blake, M. D., Commissioner of Health

STATE TO PUBLISH TEXT BOOKS FOR IMMIGRANTS

The State Board of Education, cooperating with the State Immigration Commission, has announced that it will soon publish text books in the study of English and citizenship for adult immigrants. Luther Parker, a Federal educational expert recently employed by the Immigration Commission, is now engaged in compiling these text books under the joint supervision of the two state boards.

These text books will be distributed by the State Board of Education free, for the use of adult immigrants in all cities and districts where classes for the instruction of foreigners are establishd under the law regarding evening schools. When the text books have been prepared the Immigration Commission will send Parker throughout the state to stimulate interest in the organigation of such classes. This is part of a recently announced program which has for its object the assimilation of immigrants. This field has been neglected and disorganized in the past and, by means of uniform text books, it is planned to develop a state-wide, organized effort to make real citizens out of the thousands of foreigneds in the state.

Labor organization makes for good citizenship in many ways. It develops the social instinct of the worker; it widens the circle of his sympaty; it enlarges his intellectual horizon, compelling his attention first to problems affecting his own trade; then those which affect Labor in general, and so on to those in which the interest of the whole community is involved. It stimulates self- respect and independence in the worker. It is the staunch shield between him and industrial slavery, and is the most powerful guarantee of the devlopment of the highest type of citizenship.

ANAW FULSIMP

I hear that Howard French is peeved because I didn't publish his photo the other day and used Mr. Al Childs cut instead well Howard I apologize so today I will put your picture in this col. and here is the photograph of Richmond's most handsome citizen

Among the distinguished visitors at our office yesterday was Al Childs. Al says the photo published in this col. several days ago was evidently snapped while he was returning from the clam bake.

Now nominations are piling in for the Handsome Fan contest. The writer confered with the committee last night and it was decided to hold the contest by election. The vote coupon follows:

Dear Anaw:
Kindly give ..... as many votes as the coupon is worth as I think he the logical man for the title of the Most Handsome Fan.
(This coupon good for 5000 Votes)

Somebody in Richmond loves Denny J. Healey.

His Name is Willie Cunningham.

He plays left field for the Elks.

And he plays it as she should be played.

And we like Bill.

But we are getting suspicious.

What did Healey do with that $.75.

Bill entered our office yesterday.

Gee, whiz he said.

And then he said something else.

He said why doncha lay off Healey, the poor stiff.

You're roasting him too much.

And now we wont say another word about Denny.

We like Healey.

Healey Likes us.

So let's kiss and make up.

Whatya say Healey?

See, we won't call you a bum.

Even if you are one.

And we won't say you chase jitneys.

Though we know you do.

And we won't tell anybody, you'd like to clean us up.

We'll just keep that a little secret.

Good idea, eh, Denny old- scout.

Make mine a tall, one.

Yep, Healey and we are friends.

I like Healey.

Healey likes me.

They'll need the riot squad to separate us if we meet at Bill Luce's Park tomorrow.

GREETING MR. HEALEY WE'RE READY FOR U

Two cities await expectant. A hush of silence, deep and ominous envelopes both of the greatest baseball centers in the bush baseball world. They are Richmond and Petaluma. At the park at First street Richmond, tomorrow at 2:15 o'clock will begin one of the greatest baseball contests in the history of the entire season of 1915. Richmond and Petaluma! One a village, the other a thriving city. Petaluma representing the village expects victory. It is even confident of victory and does not hesitate to say so. In fact the 'andsome scribe of one of the Petaluma publications rises to remark that Petaluma will score as many runs as there are bends in the Petaluma creek.

Any who made the trip on the steamship Grace Barton will not doubt this. There is a chance that Petaluma will score one entire run, in which case the coiner of the paragraph will be correct. The creek is one complete bend. For information, we again refer you to those who made the trip on the good ship Barton.

In Richmond an optimistic confidence reigns. The citizen of our fair city do not fear the outcome of the contest. Richmond will send its club into the field, knowing that every man in the best of condition; that every lad on the nine desires victory and that every one is confident.

As Holman Tuller says, "gentlemen, this is a case where the club getting the majority of the tallies cast will be victorious."

PINOLE CLUB HAS CLASSY CARD ON NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT

Followers of the game of swat will gather at Pinole next Friday evening. A double main event has been secured for the evening. Kid Smiley, the fight kid and Young Silva, who gave Smiley a good time at Martinez several weeks ago will participate in one bout and Young Hughes in another. Smiley and Silva have no great love for each othey and the bout should bring home a K. O. mark. Silva is the only boy in these parts who has yet managed to give Smiley a drubbing and the Oaklander wants to eliminate that stain.

In the other bouts, Kid Sylvester and Harry Eagles; Tommy Sheer and Frank Brazil and Jimmie West and Kid Melrose will trade smashes.

Of this group, West and Brazil are the best known among local fans. West at the last show here, substituting slammed a slim gentleman all over the ring, and has made quite a hit with the boys who follow the game. Jimmy is as loose with his hands as a windmill and the bout should be a fast one.

Brazil is rapidly forging to the front and if the boy can get by Sheer with a couple of K.o's he will be right up amongst the leaders.

Remember this you boobs and buggettes: RICHMOND HAS NOT YET LOST A SINGLE GAME THIS SEASON PLAYED ON THE LOCAL GROUNDS.

Can Petaluma do it?

We're going to answer that question right now. We may be wrong, but we're always willing to stand up and say what we think. Here's the answer: "NAW."

Petaluma has a fast club. This we'll admit. They have such a nice manager, too.

It is expected that more than 2,000 will witness the festivities. Be one in that gang.
